Auktionsbedingungen

Durch die Teilnahme an der Auktion werden die folgenden Bedingungen anerkannt:

1. Die Versteigerung erfolgt in Schweizer Franken. Der Zuschlag erfolgt nach dreimaligem Aufruf an den Höchstbietenden, dessen Gebot vom Auktionator (für elektronische (online) Auktionen: virtueller Auktionator) anerkannt wurde, und verpflichtet zur Annahme. Der Ausruf erfolgt in der Regel bei 80% des Schätzpreises, sofern nicht höhere Angebote vorliegen. Schriftliche Gebote haben Vorrang gegenüber telefonischen oder elektronischen Geboten. Jeder Ersteigerer verpflichtet sich persönlich für die durch ihn getätigten Käufe. Er kann nicht nachträglich geltend machen, für Rechnung Dritter gehandelt zu haben.
2. Telefonische oder schriftliche Bietaufträge (auch per E-Mail oder Fax) von nichtanwesenden Interessenten werden bis 24 Stunden vor Auktionsbeginn entgegengenommen. Elektronische Angebote über die Onlineplattform werden bis zum Zeitpunkt des Beginns der elektronischen Auktion angenommen. Sie sind unwiderruflich und verbindlich. Telefonische Bieter sind damit einverstanden, dass das Gespräch aufgezeichnet werden kann. Das Auktionshaus übernimmt keinerlei Haftung für schriftliche, elektronische und telefonische Bietaufträge.
3. Bieter werden gebeten, sich vor der Auktion zu legitimieren und anschliessend registrieren zu lassen. Das Auktionshaus kann eine Bankreferenz und/oder Sicherheiten verlangen. Es steht im Ermessen des Auktionshauses, eine Person nicht an der Auktion teilnehmen zu lassen.
4. Es steht dem Versteigerer nach seinem Ermessen frei, ein Gebot heraufzusetzen oder ohne Angabe von Gründen abzulehnen. Der Versteigerer behält sich ferner das Recht vor, Lose zu vereinigen, zu trennen, ausserhalb der Reihenfolge anzubieten oder wegzulassen bzw. von der Auktion zurückzuziehen.
5. Auf dem Zuschlagspreis ist ein Aufgeld (Provision) von 22,5% zu entrichten. Internet Live Bieter entrichten ein zusätzliches Aufgeld von 1% auf den Zuschlagspreis. Die schweizerische Mehrwertsteuer von 8,1% wird auf den Endpreis (Zuschlagspreis plus alle weiteren vom Auktionshaus dem Käufer in Rechnung gestellte Beträge) erhoben. Goldmünzen (AV) sind von der MwSt. befreit.
Bei Ausfuhr des ersteigerten Objekts ins Ausland wird dem Käufer die MwSt. zurückerstattet, wenn er eine rechtsgültige Ausfuhrdeklaration des schweizerischen Zolls beibringt.
6. Der Gesamtpreis wird mit erfolgtem Zuschlag zur Zahlung fällig und ist vor der Aushändigung des Objekts zu bezahlen, ausser es sei vor der Auktion eine andere schriftliche Abmachung getroffen worden. Für verspätete Zahlungen wird ein Verzugszins von 1% pro Monat in Rechnung gestellt. Das Eigentum geht erst mit der vollständigen Bezahlung auf den Käufer über. In der Regel liefert NAC das ersteigerte Objekt nicht vor der Bezahlung an den Käufer aus. Eine allfällige frühere Auslieferung bewirkt ausdrücklich keinen Eigentumsübergang und ändert nichts an der Zahlungsverpflichtung des Käufers.
Hat der Käufer nicht sofort und auch nicht innert fünf Tagen ab Erhalt einer eingeschriebenen schriftlichen Mahnung bezahlt, so ist NAC ohne weiteres und ohne weitere Anzeige berechtigt, vom Verkauf zurückzutreten.
7. Versand und Versicherung erfolgen auf Kosten und Risiko des Käufers (Ersteigerers). Im Ausland verrechnete Gebühren und Steuern gehen zulasten des Käufers (Ersteigerers). Diesem obliegt es, sich über ausländische Zoll- und Devisenvorschriften zu informieren. Das Auktionshaus übernimmt keine Haftung für allfällige Zuwiderhandlungen gegen solche Vorschriften.
8. Der Käufer verpflichtet sich, die erworbenen Waren nicht in Länder oder Gebiete zu exportieren, die wirtschaftlichen Sanktionen, Embargos oder anderen Handelsbeschränkungen unterliegen, die von der Schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft verhängt wurden. Darüber hinaus verpflichtet sich der Käufer, die erworbenen Waren nicht an Personen oder Einrichtungen zu übertragen oder ihnen zur Verfügung zu stellen, die von Sanktionen der Schweizerischen Eidgenossenschaft betroffen sind, und alle aktuellen Schweizer Vorschriften bezüglich Export und Sanktionen einzuhalten.
9. Alle Angaben im Katalog wurden nach bestem Wissen und Gewissen zusammengestellt. Erweist sich ein Objekt nach dem Auktionsverkauf als Fälschung, so wird NAC den Verkauf namens des Einlieferers rückgängig machen und dem Käufer (Ersteigerer) den Kaufpreis (inkl. MWST) zurückerstatten. Der Käufer (Ersteigerer) kann eine solche Rückabwicklung ab dem Tag des Zuschlages für einen Zeitraum von zwei Jahren verlangen, sofern er den Mangel nach Entdeckung desselben mit eingeschriebenem Brief innert einer Frist von 5 Tagen gerügt hat.
10. Die zur Versteigerung gelangenden Objekte werden für Rechnung Dritter versteigert oder sind Eigentum des Auktionshauses. Der Käufer (Ersteigerer) hat keinen Anspruch auf Bekanntgabe des Einlieferers und ist damit einverstanden, dass das Auktionshaus auch von diesem eine Provision erhält.
11. NAC behält sich das Recht vor, eigens erstellte Fotografien oder Abbildungen der Objekte in seinen Publikationen und/oder auf seiner Website zu veröffentlichen und damit zu werben.
12. Die vorstehenden Bedingungen sind Bestandteil eines jeden einzelnen an der Auktion geschlossenen Kaufvertrags. Änderungen sind nur schriftlich gültig. Sofern Teile dieser Auktionsbedingungen der geltenden Rechtslage nicht mehr oder nicht vollständig entsprechen sollten, bleiben die übrigen Teile in ihrem Inhalt und ihrer Gültigkeit unberührt. Massgebend ist die deutsche Fassung dieser Auktionsbedingungen.
13. Die Auktion findet unter Mitwirkung des Stadtmannamtes Zürich 1 statt. Jede Haftung der mitwirkenden Behörde, des Stadtmanns, der Gemeinde oder des Staates für Handlungen des Auktionators entfällt. Das Vertragsverhältnis zwischen den Parteien untersteht in allen Teilen dem schweizerischen Recht. Erfüllungsort ist der Sitz des Auktionshauses in 8001 Zürich, und ausschliesslicher Gerichtsstand ist Zürich.

Conditions of Sale

The following terms and conditions are accepted by all persons participating in the auction:

1. Auction bidding is conducted in Swiss Francs. The highest bidder who has been acknowledged by the auctioneer when the hammer falls after the third call, has legally bought the lot (for e-auctions there will be a virtual auctioneer). Bidding usually begins at 80% of the estimate, provided no higher offers have been submitted. Written bids have priority over telephone and electronic bids. The successful bidder has committed himself personally to the purchases made. He cannot claim to have acted on behalf of a third party.
2. Absentee bidders can send bids electronically until the start of the sale. Bidders wishing to send a written bid by email, fax or participate by telephone must send their bids no later than 24 hours before the start of the auction. All bids are final and binding. Telephone bidders must agree that calls may be recorded. The auction house does not take responsibility for bidding mandates made by telephone, electronically or in writing.
3. Bidders must show proof of identification before the auction, and subsequently register. The Auction House may require a bank reference and/or guarantee. The Auction House reserves the right to deny a person from participating in the auction.
4. The auctioneer may raise or reject a bid without giving a reason. Furthermore, they have the right to combine, separate, and offer catalogue lots in a different order, as well as omit or withdraw them from the auction.
5. A commission of 22.5% will be levied on the hammer price - bidders using our Live Internet facilities pay an additional charge of 1%. The Swiss value added tax (VAT) of 8.1% is payable on the final price (hammer price, plus buyer's commission and any other amounts chargeable by the Auction House to the buyer). Gold coins (AV) are exempt from VAT.

If the purchases are exported, then the VAT will be refunded on production of a legally valid original export declaration issued by Swiss Customs.
6. Payment in Swiss Francs is due immediately upon adjudication of the lot and has to be paid with the release of the object to the Buyer, unless otherwise agreed in writing before the sale. Late payments will be subject to a monthly default interest of 1%. The ownership of a lot will not pass to the Buyer until NAC has received full payment on their account. NAC will generally not release a lot to a Buyer before payment. Earlier release of the lot does explicitly not affect its title nor the Buyer's obligation to pay.

If the Buyer has failed to make immediate payment or within 5 days after receipt of a registered, written reminder, NAC may in its sole discretion cancel the sale of the lot.
7. Shipping and insurance are at the buyer's (successful bidder's) cost and risk. Any fees and charges payable abroad are borne by the buyer (successful bidder) who is responsible for acquiring the necessary information on any applicable customs and foreign exchange regulations. The Auction House accepts no liability for any contraventions of such regulations.
8. The Buyer undertakes not to export the purchased goods to countries or territories subject to economic sanctions, embargoes, or other trade restrictions imposed by the Swiss Confederation. Furthermore, the Buyer undertakes not to transfer or make available the purchased goods to individuals or entities that are subject to sanctions imposed by the Swiss Confederation, and to comply with all current Swiss regulations regarding export and sanctions.
9. All identifications and descriptions of the items sold in this catalogue are statements of opinion and were made in good faith. Should an item sold later be found to be a fake, NAC shall cancel the sale made on behalf of the consignor and refund the sale's price (including VAT as applicable) to the buyer. The buyer is entitled to claim such a refund within a period of two years from the date of the auction, provided that they have notified NAC of the defect by registered letter within 5 days from its detection.
10. The objects which come under the hammer are auctioned on behalf of a third party or are property of the Auction House. The buyer (successful bidder) has no entitlement to have the identity of the consignor disclosed to them and acknowledges that the Auction House might receive a commission from the consignor for the sale.
11. NAC reserves the right to use photographs and other representations of objects sold at auction, for promotional purposes, in its own publications and on its website.
12. The above conditions are a component of each individual contract of sale concluded at the auction. Alterations must be made in writing in order to be valid. If any parts of these Terms and Conditions should be no longer or not fully be in conformity with the valid legal situation, this shall not affect the content and validity of the remaining parts. The above-mentioned conditions are written in German, French, Italian and English; the only valid text is the German one.
13. The auction takes place under the supervision of officials of the city of Zurich (Stadtammannamt Zurich 1). Any liability of the cooperating authority, the municipality or the state for acts of the auctioneer is waived. The contractual relationship between parties is subject in all facets to Swiss law. Place of performance is the registered office of the Auction House in 8001 Zurich, and the exclusive court of jurisdiction is Zurich.

Conditions de la vente aux enchères

Du fait de la participation à la vente aux enchères, les conditions suivantes sont réputées être acceptées :

1. Les enchères sont effectuées en Francs Suisses. L'adjudication est réalisée après trois appels consécutifs du plus offrant dont l'offre a été acceptée par le commissaire-priseur et qui constitue une obligation (pour les ventes aux enchères électroniques il y aura le commissaire-priseur virtuel). La mise à prix est effectuée en règle générale à 80 %, dans la mesure où il n'y a pas d'offres disponibles et plus élevées. Les offres formulées par écrit sont prioritaires sur les offres téléphoniques ou électroniques. Chaque enchérisseur s'engage personnellement en ce qui concerne les acquisitions réalisées par ses soins. Il ne peut pas faire valoir le fait d'avoir agi pour le compte d'une tierce personne.
2. Les demandes d'enchères par téléphone ou par écrit (également par moyen électronique) pour les personnes intéressées et non présentes (ou plutôt en ligne pour les ventes aux enchères électroniques) doivent être réceptionnées jusqu'à 24 heures avant le début de la vente aux enchères. Toutes les offres sont finales et contraignantes. Les enchérisseurs par téléphone acceptent que la communication téléphonique puisse être enregistrée. La salle des ventes n'assume aucune responsabilité quant aux enchères effectuées par téléphone, électronique ou par écrit.
3. Les enchérisseurs sont priés de se légitimer avant la vente aux enchères et de se faire enregistrer à l'issue de la vente. La salle des ventes peut exiger une référence bancaire et/ou une garantie. La salle des ventes a le droit de ne pas laisser une personne participer à la vente aux enchères.
4. L'enchérisseur peut, à sa guise, surenchérir une offre ou bien la décliner sans indication de motifs. L'enchérisseur se réserve en outre le droit d'associer des lots, de les séparer, de faire des offres en dehors de l'ordre prévu ou de les laisser de côté, voire de se retirer de la vente aux enchères.
5. Une commission de 22,5% est perçue sur le prix d'adjudication. Les acquéreurs qui souhaitent participer aux enchères en ligne avec nos facilités Live Internet paieront un frais supplémentaire de 1%. La taxe à la valeur ajoutée suisse d'un montant de 8,1 % sera perçue sur le prix définitif (prix d'adjudication plus supplément et sur tous les autres montants facturés à l'acquéreur par la salle des ventes). Les pièces de monnaie en or (AV) sont dispensées de la TVA.

En cas d'exportation de l'objet adjudiqué vers l'étranger, l'acquéreur se voit restituer la TVA lorsqu'il est en mesure de présenter une déclaration d'exportation réglementaire, en bonne et due forme, des autorités douanières suisses.

6. Le prix total en francs suisses est exigible immédiatement après adjudication et doit être acquitté avant la remise de l'objet adjudiqué sauf si un autre accord écrit a été conclu avant la vente aux enchères. Pour les paiements effectués ultérieurement un intérêt moratoire de 1% par mois sera facturé. La transmission de la propriété à l'acquéreur a lieu seulement à paiement intégral. En général, NAC ne remet pas l'objet adjudiqué à l'acquéreur avant paiement. Une éventuelle livraison antérieure n'entraîne expressément aucun transfert de propriété et ne modifie en rien l'obligation de paiement de l'acheteur.

En cas que l'acquéreur n'a pas payé simultanément et non plus entre les cinq jours après réception d'un avertissement sous pli recommandé, NAC est en droit de se départir du contrat sans autre formalité et sans avis ultérieur.

7. Les frais d'envoi et d'assurance sont à charge et au risque de l'acquéreur (enchérisseur). Les taxes ou les impôts facturés à l'étranger sont à la charge de l'acquéreur (enchérisseur). Il lui incombe de s'informer au sujet des directives étrangères en matière de douane et de devises. La salle des ventes décline toute responsabilité pour les éventuelles infractions à l'encontre de ces directives.

8. L'acheteur s'engage à ne pas exporter les biens achetés vers des pays ou territoires soumis à des sanctions économiques, des embargos ou d'autres restrictions commerciales imposées par la Confédération suisse. En outre, l'acheteur s'engage à ne pas transférer ou mettre à disposition les biens achetés à des individus ou entités faisant l'objet de sanctions imposées par la Confédération suisse, et à respecter toutes les réglementations suisses en vigueur en matière d'exportation et de sanctions.

9. Toutes les indications mentionnées dans le catalogue sont rassemblées en toute conscience et en toute bonne foi. S'il s'avérait après la vente qu'un objet n'était pas authentique, NAC annulerait la vente faite de la part du consignataire et rembourserait le prix de vente (y compris toute TVA appliquée) à l'acheteur. L'acheteur a droit à demander un tel remboursement entre une période de 2 ans à partir de la date de la vente aux enchères, pourvu qu'il ait averti NAC du défaut par lettre recommandée dans un délai de 5 jours depuis sa détection.

10. Les objets mis aux enchères le sont pour le compte de tierces personnes ou bien sont la propriété de la salle des ventes. L'acquéreur (enchérisseur) n'a aucun droit d'obtenir communication du nom de la personne qui met en vente et se déclare en accord avec le fait que la salle des ventes perçoive une provision de cette dernière.

11. NAC se réserve le droit d'utiliser les photographes et d'autres représentations des objets vendus lors de ses ventes aux enchères à des fins promotionnelles, dans ses propres publications et sur son site Internet

12. Les présentes conditions font partie intégrante de tout contrat de vente conclu dans le cadre de la vente aux enchères. Les modifications ne sont valables que par écrit. Le fait que des parties des présentes conditions de vente aux enchères venaient à ne plus correspondre, ou du moins plus intégralement, à la situation juridique en vigueur, n'affecte en rien les autres parties, ni dans leur contenu, ni dans leur validité. La version en langue allemande constitue la référence des présentes conditions de vente aux enchères.

13. La vente se déroule sous la supervision des fonctionnaires de la ville de Zurich (Stadtmannamt Zurich 1). L'autorité coopérante, la municipalité et l'État sont exonérés de toute responsabilité pour les actes du commissaire-priseur. La relation contractuelle entre les parties en cause est soumise, dans toutes ses composantes, au droit Suisse. La compétence juridique est fixée au siège de la salle des ventes à 8001 Zurich, et le for juridique exclusif est Zurich.

Condizioni di vendita

La partecipazione all'asta comporta l'accettazione delle seguenti condizioni:

1. La valuta in cui viene condotta l'asta è il Franco Svizzero. L'aggiudicazione al miglior offerente, individuato dal banditore, avviene dopo la terza chiamata e comporta per l'aggiudicatario l'acquisto con tutti i relativi obblighi di legge. Le offerte partono generalmente dall' 80% del prezzo di stima a meno che una o più offerte d'importo maggiore siano state presentate. Le offerte scritte hanno la precedenza sulle offerte telefoniche o elettroniche. Il partecipante all'asta è personalmente responsabile per l'acquisto effettuato e non può pretendere di avere agito per conto di terzi.
  2. I partecipanti all'asta non presenti in sala possono presentare offerte telefonicamente, in forma scritta, o per via elettronica fino a 24 ore prima dell'inizio dell'asta. Ogni offerta è finale e vincolante. Coloro che trasmettono la propria offerta telefonicamente, prestano il proprio consenso all'eventuale registrazione della telefonata. La casa d'asta non si assume alcun tipo di responsabilità per le offerte trasmesse in forma scritta, elettronica o telefonica.
  3. Per concorrere all'asta, i partecipanti dovranno esibire un documento d'identità e registrarsi. La casa d'asta si riserva il diritto di richiedere referenze bancarie o un deposito cauzionale per permettere la partecipazione all'asta. La casa d'asta si riserva inoltre il diritto di rifiutare la partecipazione all'asta di un soggetto.
  4. Il banditore d'asta ha la facoltà di aumentare o rifiutare un'offerta secondo la propria discrezionalità e senza necessità di fornire una motivazione. Il banditore si riserva inoltre il diritto di unire, separare, cambiare la sequenza prevista o di eliminare e/o ritirare dall'asta determinati lotti.
  5. Al prezzo d'aggiudicazione va aggiunta una commissione del 22,5%. Gli offerenti che parteciperanno all'asta 'live' attraverso internet pagheranno un costo supplementare dell'1%. L'imposta svizzera sul valore aggiunto, pari attualmente al 8,1%, viene applicata sul prezzo finale (prezzo d'aggiudicazione più commissione ed ogni altro importo imputabile al compratore dalla casa d'aste). Le monete in oro (AV) sono esonerate dal pagamento dell'IVA.
- In caso d'esportazione dell'oggetto acquistato all'asta verso un paese estero, il compratore ha diritto al rimborso dell'IVA a seguito di consegna di una valida dichiarazione d'esportazione dell'ufficio doganale della Confederazione Elvetica.
6. Il pagamento del prezzo totale è dovuto al momento dell'accettazione dell'offerta e deve essere effettuato prima della consegna dell'oggetto, se non diversamente concordato per iscritto prima dell'asta. I pagamenti in ritardo saranno soggetti a un interesse dell'1% al mese. La proprietà non passerà all'acquirente fino al completo pagamento. Di norma, la NAC non consegnerà l'oggetto d'asta all'acquirente prima del pagamento. Una consegna anticipata non comporta espressamente un trasferimento di proprietà e non modifica l'obbligo di pagamento dell'acquirente. Se il compratore non dovesse effettuare il pagamento subito o entro 5 giorni dalla ricezione di una raccomandata scritta da NAC come avviso di mancato pagamento, la NAC si riserverà la facoltà di cancellare la vendita di tale lotto.
  7. I costi ed il rischio della spedizione sono a carico dell'acquirente. Qualunque imposta e contributo legalmente dovuto nel paese d'esportazione è a carico dell'acquirente (compratore in sede d'asta) il quale è responsabile della conoscenza di norme vigenti in materia doganale e di valuta. La casa d'asta non si assume alcuna responsabilità nell'eventuale violazione di tali prescrizioni.
  8. L'Acquirente si impegna a non esportare i beni acquistati verso Paesi o territori soggetti a sanzioni economiche, embarghi o altre restrizioni commerciali imposte dalla Confederazione Svizzera. Inoltre, l'Acquirente si impegna a non trasferire o mettere a disposizione i beni acquistati a individui o entità che sono oggetto di sanzioni imposte dalla Confederazione Svizzera, e a rispettare tutte le normative vigenti in Svizzera in materia di esportazione e sanzioni.
  9. Le indicazioni e descrizioni contenute nel catalogo sono opinioni soggettive ed espresse in buona fede. Nel caso in cui un oggetto venisse ritenuto falso, NAC annullerà la vendita condotta per conto del consegnatario e rimborserà all'acquirente il prezzo di vendita (compreso di IVA, se applicata). L'acquirente ha diritto di richiedere tale rimborso entro un periodo di due anni a partire dalla data della vendita all'asta, a condizione che abbia avvisato NAC del difetto tramite lettera raccomandata entro cinque giorni dalla sua scoperta.
  10. Gli oggetti offerti vengono messi all'asta per conto di terzi o sono di proprietà della casa d'asta. L'acquirente (compratore in sede d'asta) non ha il diritto di conoscere l'identità del consegnatario dell'oggetto e prende atto che alla casa d'asta potrebbe venir corrisposta dal consegnatario una commissione per la vendita.
  11. NAC si riserva il diritto di usare fotografie e altre ripresentazioni di oggetti venduti durante l'asta, nelle proprie pubblicazioni e sul proprio sito internet per motivi promozionali.
  12. Le condizioni sopra menzionate costituiscono parte integrante di ciascun contratto individuale di vendita concluso nell'asta. Eventuali modifiche saranno ritenute valide solo se fatte in forma scritta. Nel caso in cui una parte delle presenti Condizioni di Vendita non dovesse essere più totalmente conforme alle vigenti disposizioni di legge, ciò non avrà effetto sulla validità delle parti restanti. L'unica versione di testo delle Condizioni di Vendita che ha valore legale è quella in lingua tedesca.
  13. L'asta si svolge sotto la supervisione dei funzionari della città di Zurigo (Stadtammannamt Zurich 1). L'autorità cooperante, il comune e lo stato sono esonerati da qualsiasi responsabilità circa le azioni del banditore. Il rapporto contrattuale fra le parti è regolato in tutti i suoi aspetti dal diritto della Confederazione Elvetica. Il luogo d'adempimento è la sede della casa d'aste a Zurigo (8001). Il foro competente è esclusivamente quello di Zurigo.

Several advantages are available for our US based clients through NAC USA, LLC – our partnership with Shanna Schmidt Numismatics Inc. based in Chicago.

- Upon request, our American clients will be able to have their purchases shipped from Chicago. NAC USA LLC will import the coins into the US and will take care of all customs formalities.
- We also offer the possibility to pay directly to our US bank account in US dollars at a fixed exchange rate agreed after the sale.
- If you would like to take advantage of this new service after the auction, please contact us at zurich@arsclassicacoins.com and we will make the necessary arrangements.
- US customers wishing to consign coins to either NAC or Naville can contact our Chicago office directly via email at usa@arsclassicacoins.com or via phone at +1 312 883 8541.

Unfortunately, at the time of printing, the situation regarding the new import tariffs into the United States is continuously evolving and we are unable to confirm whether there will be an exemption for collectable coins or if they will be subject to the reciprocal tariff currently at 10%.

Hopefully, we will have some clarity by the time of the auction. Should you have any questions in the meantime, please do not hesitate to contact one of our offices.

We offer our US clients the option of storing coins purchased at NAC auctions in our London office at no additional cost and without paying any import duties in the United Kingdom. Normal shipping fees will apply if the client chooses to relocate their purchases to another location, whether within the US or abroad.

Note on US Import Restrictions

In accordance with US Customs and Border Protection regulations (19 CFR Part 12), we attest, to the best of our knowledge, that all restricted ancient Greek and Roman coins, from mints that are now within the modern boundaries of Italy, either have an export licence issued by the Republic of Italy or were outside of Italy prior to 19 January 2011. We also attest that all restricted ancient coins, from mints that are now within the modern boundaries of Greece, were outside of Greece before 1 December 2011. In addition, all restricted coins from mints that are now within the modern boundaries of Bulgaria, Cyprus, Egypt, Iran, Iraq, Syria, Libya, Algeria, Jordan, Morocco and Turkey were, in the case of Bulgaria, Cyprus, Egypt and Iran, outside of those countries before 30 May 2005, in the case of Iraq before 2 August 1990, in the case of Syria before 15 March 2011, in the case of Libya before February 2018, in the case of Algeria, before August 2019, in the case of Jordan before 5 February 2020 and in the case of Morocco before January 2021 and in the case of Turkey, before 16 June 2021. Numismatica Ars Classica NAC AG will provide appropriate documentation to assist with the importation of any purchased lots into the USA.

Foreword Andrew McCabe

Four decades of evolution are invested into this, my collection of Roman Republican coins, and are reflected in its present state coverage, rarity, provenance, condition, strike, and patina. For much of this time I used Robert Carson's, Principal Coins of the Romans, as my model of a perfectly displayed collection, and I encourage collectors who would like a guide on how to balance coverage and rarity in assembling a collection to acquire Carson's three volume series, The Republic, Principate and Dominate, British Museum, London 1978-81.

The collection has passed through several distinct stages but there might have been some shortcuts had I known how important demonstrable provenance would become in time. In the 1980s I collected whatever Roman Republican denarii looked interesting and were available in retail shops and through retail offerings of Baldwin's, Seaby, Spink etc. My mentor at the time – everyone needs a mentor – was Thomas Beverley Curtis at Baldwin's who would say "buy this coin, you won't regret it"; I recall him being pleased that I was interested in rare varieties and not just in condition: Mr. Curtis regularly said that collectors who only focused on condition and didn't consider patina, provenance, rarity etc, were missing out on a great deal of interesting coins. I discovered NAC auctions in the 1990s, and the quality of my coins improved. Early NAC sales included great coverage of Roman Republican bronzes and I started forming an all-metals collection, including aes grave, silver, struck and cast bronzes. I made many mistakes – I bought an EID MAR denarius of Brutus, in poor condition but evidently genuine, and sold it some years later on the basis that it was a fairly common type and I would soon find one in VF or better. I didn't. Oh dear. For the record, here it is:

Some collecting areas, adjacent to the Roman Republic, proved too difficult to play a serious role in. These included the Social War, the Restoration Coinage of Trajan, and the Fleet Coinage of Mark Antony. I didn't at the time know that Richard Witschonke was assembling the world's best collection of Mark Antony Fleet Coinage, which he was to donate to the American Numismatic Society.

In the early 2000's my collection entered a new phase - I set myself the impossible task of collecting every Roman Republican coin type in all metals, regardless of condition. Many coins cost 50 dollars or less. I added 48 coins in 2001, 99 in 2002, 147 in 2003 growing to 285 new coins in 2009, and a peak of 310 new coins in 2013. I was adding a new coin to my collection every one to three days for two decades. The numbers were extraordinary. Over my entire collecting career I have owned perhaps 5000 Roman Republican coins, a rather similar number to the collection sizes of Richard Schaefer, Richard B Witschonke and Roberto Russo who all became firm friends in this time. My study collection of Roman Republican bronzes enabled me to do serious research work and I was honoured that Roberto Russo invited me to collaborate with him on a book on Roman Republican bronzes – forthcoming – and a special study on the coinage of Luceria and Canusium – published in the Revue Belge de Numismatique, 2024.

This study collection, mainly of bronzes but with many silver coins, was dispersed to collectors in the period 2013 to 2023, as I completed research on each series in turn. From the time of the RBW sales, 2012 and 2023, I focused on a new area: provenances, and have spent the last twelve years narrowing my collection down to the most important coins of the best possible provenances. This collection is so different from the study collection that I dispersed from 2013, that it is important for it to have a different name. Lambeth Bridge has a special association with luck in coins.

I have held two examples of this extremely rare type with retrograde legends, confirmed as official due to there being multiple dies across multiple denominations all with this legend form. My other example was, I discovered in 2015, illustrated in the second, 1898, volume of Max Bahrfeldt's Nachträge und Berichtigungen zur Münzkunde der Römischen Republik, pl.6, #123, which initially pleased me immensely until I realised the text cited 'Pesaro' and that the cited example in Crawford's RRC also cited 'Pesaro'. I reached out to the Museo Archeologico Oliveriano, who reported back that the coin had been missing since the mid 1980s, in a not widely published theft. Of course, I immediately arranged to have the coin returned to Pesaro, and as part of that return process I walked with the coin to a friend's office in London. I recall the day was spilling with rain. Somehow when I arrived, the coin was no longer in my pocket. I left the office and retraced my steps through the rain, back and forward over many miles, and unbelievably found the coin in its plastic flip on the pavement in the middle of Lambeth Bridge; the glint of the flip helped me see it in the rain. That Tituria quadrans is now safely back in Pesaro. A few weeks later I noticed another example of this coin being sold by David Hendin on behalf of Heidi Becker, Richard B. Witschonke's partner. I reached out and they jointly gifted me this coin. My entire coin collection is now named after this Lambeth Bridge find.

The sale of Richard B. Witschonke's collection, the RBW collection, in 2011-2012, put a new emphasis on documenting provenance in ancient coins. This coincided with the introduction of new import and export regulations for antiquities in various countries that laid emphasis on the importance of demonstrating provenance through old photographic sources. Thus began a relentless search for provenances for coins I already owned, and a focus on adding coins to my collection that were highly likely to have demonstrably excellent provenances. Whilst the newer import regulations covered only coins that were localised in one country and not international trade coins such as the Athenian tetradrachm or the Roman denarius which might be found anywhere from Scotland to India, my aim was to use the same rigour as the best public collections in the world might use. This required an entirely new library and new research tools and techniques.

The exact techniques used to find provenances are too complex to explain in this introduction, but it is worth noting that electronic means, in particular image matching, played almost no part at all. I put five hundred coins through one or other image matching websites and scored perhaps three useful hits not already known to me through conventional search techniques, and those not very useful at that – obscure sales in the 1990s. This will improve but as of now, a physical library remains of great value to the provenance researcher.

As I sifted out better and better coins and completed the disposal of my study collection coins, the nature of my collection changed, reducing in size and improving in quality and provenance and this collection is presented with its tickets and ephemera in this book. I leave you with one very typical provenance: noting that every occurrence in a past book or sale is documented with a photograph from the original source.

The collection tickets displayed in this book contain many easter eggs in the form of small sterling silver tickets bearing the name of a Roman moneyer. I acquired this group of tickets a decade ago, evidently some were used to mark coin trays in a large collection and have now dispersed these among my coins.

I leave you with one very typical provenance: noting that every occurrence in a past book or sale is documented with a photograph from the original source.

Andrew McCabe - Ahala Collect

128/1 Decia shield carnyx Roma, Dioscuri. AM# 1814 42. 4g19

McCabe, Essays Witschonke, 2015, noted
 "The contents of the cut denarius, as well as the types missing, indicates that RRC 125 QLC and RRC 126 VAR date from the later part of the early denarius period, perhaps 207 to 206 BC, thus preceding RRC 112-124, but coincident with RRC 57 crescent, whose hoard presence confirms it as among the latest of the early denarius type

This same observation may also apply to the female head and the shield and carnyx types which, though missing from the cut denarius hoard, are stylistically related to VAR and QLC.
 So this may be a second Punic war coin.

Foreword Arturo Russo

Over the years, Numismatica Ars Classica has sold a great number of Roman Republican coin collections. While Andrew McCabe's Lambeth Bridge collection may not be the most extensive or complete, it is certainly one of the dearest to us for a combination of reasons. Andrew McCabe is not only an avid collector but also, and most importantly, a scholar who has made significant contributions to the study of struck bronze coinage of the Roman Republic.

This (sadly) rather neglected field of numismatics is particularly dear to me, as it was the focus of my father's collection—the largest in the world in this category. My father dedicated the last few years of his life to compiling an organic corpus, which Andrew is helping us complete with his great expertise, and we hope that this will soon be printed.

Returning to Andrew, as he himself wrote in his preface, the group of coins that form this catalogue are the result of a continuous process of filtering and refining over the years. Over time, Andrew has increasingly focused his attention on coins with distinguished provenances, prioritising this above all other criteria: the reason for this being not only the prestige associated with the provenance but also the fact that he has always found that a coin with an old cabinet tone and not recently cleaned metal was more attractive than an "as struck" coin without a patina.

Often, his acquisitions have been driven by the needs of his research, and his extensive knowledge has enabled him to discover some remarkable rarities in smaller auctions. The result is a highly appealing group of coins, enriched by small gems often originating from the collection of Richard B. Witschonke (RBW), with whom Andrew shared a close friendship founded on mutual respect and scholarly collaboration.

Andrew's dedication and passion for numismatics will not end with the sale of this collection; rather, he will continue to devote his time to the field in his natural way – by writing articles and books on Republican coins in general, and on struck bronze coinage in particular.

The McCabe, Burnett study confirms this to be a Sicilian issue, with 11 of 12 find locations or local museum donations being Sicilian or Calabrian. It dates from shortly after the end of the second Punic war (not the start of the war as per RRC) and was likely struck in north east Sicily. The reverse was copied from a Ptolemaic octobol with symbol E dating from after 245 BCE; one die of this RRC 23 issue includes the same symbol.

The semuncial struck bronzes - this and the next six coins - may have accompanied the libral RRC 35 and RRC 36 issues, and may have commenced before the second Punic war. Overstrikes on RRC 38 and RRC 39 date from 215 BCE onwards but there's no evidence on their start date. RRC 38 and RRC 39 were produced in enormous quantities, likely over a long period of time, and to very high standards (manufacture and pure copper) appropriate to a token coinage.

Crawford distinguishes RRC 38 from RRC 41 by weight, but style is a more reliable guide. Compare this and the next coin against the RRC 38 as and semis (earlier lots) and the style difference is clear. Typically RRC 38 series asses weigh more than 108 grams (4 ounces) and the RRC 41 series under 81 grams (3 ounces) but there are occasional overlapping weights.

We do not know if this Sicilian quadrigatus was struck at the same time and place as RRC 42 bronzes. The supposed heavy bull, snake and corn-ear quadrantes that would be an undoubted link with the quadrigatus (cf. RRC p.153 & p.554 - Cr.82/1 is a misread coin) have all been disproved, and there's evidence (McCabe Anonymous Bronzes; McCabe-Russo Luceria) that lighter post-semilibral bronzes are associated with early quinarii and victoriati. So the corn ear silver and gold catalogued as RRC 72 may relate to these bronzes, and the corn-ear quadrigatus may be earlier.

The corn-ear semis clearly belongs to the heavy RRC 42 series. See McCabe, Essays Russo that shows for many post-semilibral series, the as and semis denominations weigh about full sextantal, but lower denominations weigh relatively more - quadrantal or even triental. This Apulian denarius type, at present unique, is related by die engraving style to the quinarius RRC 102/2d and is the only known denarius type from northern Apulia (the Luceria - Herdonia - Canusium region). With a fully incuse legend it is evidently among the earliest denarius types, along with RRC 45/1, RRC 68/1b and RRC 106/3a. These initial denarius types are all extremely rare, Debernardi 2025 p.164 noting "rare incuse legends are characteristic of the earliest bigatus emission (referring to RRC 45/1) and one single die for the first emissions of other important mints (referring to this coin being the "Apulian denarius", RRC 68/1b, Sicily, and RRC 106/3a, Etruria). That there is one, and only one, incuse legend die from each mint area suggests a co-ordinated rollout of the first denarius coinages. Perhaps this was a proof issue?

- 67 Quinarius, Apulia after 211, AR 17 mm, 1.81 g. Helmeted head of Roma r.; behind, V. Rev. The Dioscuri galloping r.; below, ROMA in linear frame. Sydenham 169. RBW 180. Crawford 102/2d.
Old cabinet tone and about extremely fine / extremely fine 250

Ex Antiqua Fixed Price List IV, March 1997. Privately purchased from RBW.

RRC 102/2d clearly accompanies the above denarius with fully incuse legend so we place both coins first in the denarius series.

68

- 68 60 Asses circa 211-207, AV 15 mm, 3.25 g. Bearded and draped head of Mars r., wearing Corinthian helmet; in l. field, mark of value, VX. Rev. Eagle standing r., with spread wings, on thunderbolt. Below, ROM[A]. Bahrfeldt 4. Sydenham 226. RBW 160. Crawford 44/2.
Minor marks in field and several edge marks, possibly traces of mounting, otherwise about extremely fine / extremely fine 2'000

The style of this 60 as type resembles that of the 20 as with corn-ear struck in Sicily and this coin was likely struck in Sicily.

69

- 69 20 Asses circa 211-207, AV 10 mm, 1.35 g. Bearded and draped head of Mars r., wearing Corinthian helmet; in l. field, mark of value, VX. Rev. Eagle standing r., with spread wings, on thunderbolt. Below, ROMA. Bahrfeldt 4. Sydenham 226. RBW 160. Debernardi, Campana, Lippi, Gli aurei marziali, 439 obv. 4/rev. 5 (this coin illustrated). Crawford 44/2. cf. Künker sale 193, 348 (these dies).
Rare. Minor edge marks, otherwise good very fine 2'000

Ex Astarte e-sale 5, 23 April 2009, 1.

The style of this 20 as type resembles that of the RRC 50 anchor gold - see RRC p.9: "Mars Eagle gold with anchor is astonishingly close".

- 70 Denarius circa 214-213, AV 19 mm, 4.44 g. Helmeted head of Roma r.; behind, X. Rev. The Dioscuri galloping r.; in exergue, ROMA in raised letters within linear frame. Sydenham 167. RBW -. Crawford 44/5 and pl. IX, 13.

Light iridescent tone and about extremely fine

125

Purchased by RBW in 1993. Privately purchased from RBW.

- 71 Quinarius circa 214-213, AR 18 mm, 2.17 g. Helmeted head of Roma r.; behind, V. Rev. The Dioscuri galloping r.; in exergue, ROMA in linear frame. Sydenham 169. RBW 172. Crawford 44/6.

Struck on an exceptionally large flan and with a lovely iridescent tone.

 Extremely rare. Traces of overstriking over an as. Brown-green patina and good very fine / about extremely fine

Ex Hamburger 96, 25 October 1932, 273; Glendining 19 July 1950, Henry Platt Hall (1863-1949), 461 (where purchased by Charles Hersh who later sold it to RBW) and NAC 61, 5 October 2011, RBW, 214 sales.

See McCabe Essays Hersh 2013 - the anonymous RRC 56/1 dupondii are overstruck on bronze asses in the style of the anchor series RRC 50; a second example is identified of the corn-ear and KA RRC 69/1 dupondius. Together these findings confirm these dupondii to be concurrent with the early sextantal bronze issues.

- 74 As after 211, Æ 32 mm, 31.78 g. Laureate head of Janus; above, mark of value. Rev. Prow r.; above, mark of value and below, ROMA. Sydenham 143. RBW 200. McCabe, Essays Russo, p.142, Group G4. Crawford 56/2.

cf. Russo in Essays Hersh 1997, publishing for the first time all denominations of the Cn.Cor dolabella series. The series undoubtedly is Spanish where many examples of the series have come from, not Sicilian. Crawford is uncertain on mint location but suggests Cornelius Dolabella, Rex Sacr. 208-180 as moneyer. We are inclined to place the issue much later, in the 120s BCE coincident with the moneyer SEX.IVLI RRC 258, due to flan shape - noting the thickness and sloping edges of the as of this series and the SEX.IVLI as - see Russo Essays Hersh - and the similarity of the prow design and flans to contemporary issues such as MN.ACILI, C.PLVTI and LOPEIMI, also likely struck in Spain.

Crawford describes RRC 27/4 as having a bow above Pegasus and places it as the half denomination for RRC 27/3 club series. However, the die engraver is the same as for the other three coins in this L-T series, and the fabric resembles this series and does not resemble the club series. The type also lacks the club and includes a mintmark L. This is the semuncia of the L-T series.

cf. NAC 61 note to lot 492, of the same style as this coin, which suggests that this especially wild style may be a separate issue from the usual RRC 109 style. There is probably enough variation dies already known to allow for this being an unusually artistic part of the regular RRC 109 series.

This coin is cited and illustrated in F. Capranesi, Medaglie Romane Inedite, in Annali dell'Istituto di Corrispondenza Archaeologica 1842, pl.N, IX; Henry Cohen, Description générale des monnaies de la République romaine: Médailles Consulaires, 1857, pl. LIII Cornelia 12 and Ernest Babelon description historique et chronologique des monnaies de la République romaine: Monnaies Consulaires 1885, p.388, Cornelia 4.

An unusual example of a coin illustrated by two entirely different engravings, both unmistakably this coin which has a very recognisable and unusual sprue shape at 7pm reverse. Engravings by Léon Dardel (who illustrated Cohen, Babelon and Baron d'Ailly catalogues and who Henry Cohen described as the most skilful artist in Paris of this genre) are invariably very true to the coin but it is extremely rare to find accurately drawn engravings preceding Dardel. The 1842 Capranesi article illustrating this coin is not by Dardel - the style is quite different - yet is certainly of this coin.

Ex Nummorum Auctiones sale 3, 13 September 1996, Giorgio Fallani, 616. RBW collection duplicate, gift of David Hendin and Heidi Becker in 2016.

I have held two examples of this extremely rare type with retrograde legends, confirmed as official due to there being multiple dies across multiple denominations all with this legend form. My other example was, I discovered in 2015, illustrated in the second, 1898, volume of Max Bahrfeldt's Nachträge und Berichtigungen zur Münzkunde der Römischen Republik, pl.6, #123, which initially pleased me immensely until I realised the text cited 'Pesaro' and that the cited example in Crawford's RRC also cited 'Pesaro'. I reached out to the Museo Archeologico Oliveriano, who reported back that the coin had been missing since the mid 1980s, in a not widely published theft. Of course I immediately arranged to have the coin returned to Pesaro, and as part of that return process I walked with the coin to a friend's office in London. I recall the day was spilling with rain. Somehow when I arrived, the coin was no longer in my pocket. I left the office and retraced my steps through the rain, back and forward over many miles, and unbelievably found the coin in its plastic flip on the pavement in the middle of Lambeth Bridge; the glint of the flip helped me see it in the rain. That Tituria quadrans is now safely back in Pesaro. A few weeks later I noticed another example of this coin being sold by David Hendin on behalf of Heidi Becker, Richard B. Witschonke's partner. I reached out and they jointly gifted me this coin. My entire coin collection is now named after this Lambeth Bridge find.

Purchased via Merrill Gibson from Ben Merison, Wellingborough, UK, who obtained the coin from descendants of Benjamin Nightingale (1806-1862). The ticket marked 10 shillings is from a 1940s appraisal of the collection.

Benjamin Nightingale (1806-1862) was a wine merchant at Stamford Street, London, well known antiquarian and numismatist. A small number of Nightingale's rarer coins were sold at Sotheby's in 1863.

Nightingale's 1863 sale was headed: "Coins And Medals Of The Late Benjamin Nightingale, Esq.. Comprising A Few Roman Coins, In Gold, Silver & Copper In The Highest State Of Preservation; Which Will Be Sold By Auction, By Messrs. S. Leigh Sotheby & John Wilkinson, Auctioneers Of Literary Property And Works Illustrative Of The Fine Arts At Their House, No. 13 (Late 3) Wellington Street, Strand, W.c. On Wednesday, 25th Of February, 1863, & Following Day, At One O'clock Precisely.". Ex Stack's sale 20 November 1967, Hall Park McCulloch (1872-1966), 989. Privately purchased from Barry Murphy and from the Southern California S.C. collection.

This coin follows the general theme of Q. Pomponius Musa's denarius series by depicting the Muse Polyhymnia (literally meaning "Many-Hymned") on the reverse. As one might guess, she was the patron of sacred poetry, but somewhat less obvious is her association with dance and pantomime. A spring sacred to Polyhymnia flowed from Mount Parnassos between two large rocks and into a basin at Delphi. Its waters were used there for oracular purposes by the priestess of Apollo.

The reverse of this denarius is famous and controversial. According to one interpretation, it represents Sulla lying asleep and dreaming with the contents of his dream standing around him. Plutarch tells us that before Sulla's infamous march on Rome in 88 B.C., "there appeared in his dreams a goddess whom the Romans learned to worship from the Cappadocians, whether she is Luna, or Minerva, or Bellona. This goddess, as Sulla fancied, stood by his side and put into his hand a thunderbolt, and naming his enemies one by one, bade him smite them with it; and they were all smitten, and fell, and vanished away. Encouraged by the vision, he told it to his colleague, and at break of day led on towards Rome." Luna, clearly identified by a crescent on her forehead, stands before the sleeping figure on the right while Victory stands behind him on the left. Both seem to represent elements of the dream as recorded by Plutarch. However, the use of Sulla's dream as a type by L. Aemilius Buca has been challenged on the grounds that he was an appointee of Julius Caesar and therefore linked to the populares political faction of Rome, while Sulla is thought to have become virtually an emblem of the opposition optimate faction. On the assumption that Sulla's dream was politically inappropriate, the type is instead understood to represent the myth of Endymion, a young Greek shepherd who was beloved by Selene (Roman Luna) that she begged Zeus to permit him to retain his youth and sleep forever so that she could look upon him every night. While this interpretation explains the sleeping figure and the presence of Luna, it does not easily account for Victory. She has little to do with the Endymion myth, but a great deal to do with Sulla. This fact, combined with increasing understanding that the populares and optimates were not the same as modern political parties and lacked unified policies and ideologies, makes it seem more likely that the dream of Sulla is indeed represented here.

Ex Astarte 2, 5 March 1999, 185 and NAC 78, 26 May 2014, JD, 478 sales.

This coin marks the beginning of the monarchical behaviour that would cause many members of the senatorial class to turn against Julius Caesar and assassinate him on the Ides of March. The Romans were long opposed to all trappings of kingship both in memory of the expulsion of Tarquinius Superbus, which allowed for the creation of the Roman Republic, and as a practical means of preventing the subversion of that republic. As a feature of this old anti-regal policy, it was Roman custom to never depict a living man on their coins, because this would be too much like the practices of contemporary Hellenistic kings. It was therefore very shocking to the public, and especially individuals of strong republican sentiment, when denarii like this began coming out of the mint in early 44 BC. The obverse is a clear portrait of Caesar as dictator for the fourth time executed in an excellent veristic style that does not shy away from representing his physical flaws. Due to the quality of its execution, this is probably the most desirable issue of all of Caesar's portrait coins. The dictator is shown here with the corona aurea awarded for his triumphs, but which he took to wearing at all times to cover up his increasing baldness. A lituus, the staff of the augur, appears behind the neck specifically advertises his appointment as a member of the college of augurs in 47 BC, but may also allude in more general terms to Caesar's religious roles. He had been pontifex in 73 BC and previous religious positions as pontifex maximus in 63 BC, and showed a great interest in using his sacred roles as a means of bolstering the legitimacy of his sole rule. The reverse type features Juno Sospita and represents the influence of the moneyer M. Mettius on the coin design. Juno Sospita ("the Saviour") was a form of the important goddess that was especially venerated in the Latin city of Lanuvium, the ancestral home of the gens Mettia. She was adopted into the Roman pantheon early on and had her own temple on the Palatine Hill in the fourth century BC. This nod to Mettius' family represents a last gasp for traditional moneyers as types related to Caesar came to dominate both sides of the coins. The disappearance of moneyers' influence on Roman coins only accelerated after his death and the coming of the civil wars resulting the creation of the Empire.

Ex Ratto 8 February 1928, Morcom, Hands, Wertheim, 1674 and Ratto 24 February 1930, Joseph Martini, 1351 sales. Privately purchased from NAC in 2020.

Although the Morcom, Hands and Wertheim catalogue doesn't distinguish which coins belonged to which collector, the foreword notes that Colonel R. H. Morcom of Bromsgrove collected Roman Imperial coins with a special focus on portraits, and mentions Rev. A.W. Hands of London's speciality in Roman Republican coins. The third cited collector is Julius Edward Wertheim of Berlin (1880 – 1928) a Polish pianist, conductor and composer. This portrait aureus may have been within Morcom's area of interest, so it's impossible to say which of the three consignments it came from.

The portrait aurei of 42 B.C. are devoted to the three members of the second triumvirate – Octavian, Antony and Lepidus. All were produced by four moneyers, Clodius, Mussidius, Varus and Regulus, and Buttrey's proposal that the four moneyers struck in the same year has generally been accepted. Each moneyer struck portrait aurei for each triumvir, making it a comprehensive series. The aurei of L. Livineius Regulus are unique within the group because they are not die linked with coins of the other three moneyers. This aspect, taken with the unusual characteristics of some of Regulus' silver coins, allowed Buttrey to argue that Regulus was the primus, or leading member, of the college of four moneyers. If so, the coins of Regulus may have been struck first, with those of Clodius, Mussidius and Varus following in a manner that allowed them to be die linked among each other. Based upon the inscription PRAEF.VR on one of Regulus' denarii, Buttrey suggests Regulus was serving as the praefect of the city of Rome in 42 B.C., and that his duties included control of the coinage when consuls were absent. Thus, Regulus out of necessity may have become one of the moneyers so he could perform his expanded duties as praefect. Regulus' portrait aurei were carefully conceived, as the reverse type associated with each triumvir refers to the divine forbearers of the men: Octavian claimed descent from Venus, which is implied by Regulus' type of Aeneas carrying Anchises; Lepidus counted Mars among his ancestors, which is alluded to by his type depicting the Vestal Virgin Aemilia; and Antony is said to have been descended from Hercules, who is shown on the aurei Regulus produced for him. As Buttrey points out, offering descent from a divinity as a qualification for authority was not original to this series; similar overtures had been made on earlier coinage by Sulla (with Venus), Pompey (with Neptune) and Julius Caesar (with Venus). However, Regulus' coins show a strengthening of that trend, and imply that "...the Fortune of the city was to be assured by divinity as it were made flesh." The portrait die of this specimen was paired only with one reverse die, assuring us that it did not have a particularly long life. Stylistically it is perhaps the finest of all the Antony portrait dies employed by these moneyers. The inscription IIII VIR A P F is instructive, if not entirely clear. It almost certainly abbreviates quattuorviri argento publico feriundo or quattuorviri auro publico feriundo, with the latter representing the first time gold was included as part of the regular issues – something of a landmark in the development of Roman coinage.

While Crawford dates this issue to 43-42 B.C., Sear refines the dating to the second meeting of Brutus and Cassius which took place at Sardis during the summer of 42 B.C. and which ultimately led to the final confrontation with Octavian. According to Plutarch, the meeting took place behind closed doors, which shows the strains of their partnership, but the pair's mutual recriminations were settled and the duo resolved their differences. The precise design of the shield attached to the trophy on the reverse follows that of the slightly earlier denarius of the propraetorian legate, C. Flav. Hemic. (Crawford 504/1), which was struck at a mobile military mint travelling with Brutus in Lycia while he was subjecting the cities of Xanthus and Patara, as does the change in form of Brutus' name and title from proconsul to emperor. The head of Libertas, the personification of individual freedom and whose name had served as the watchword during the first Battle of Philippi, is ideally paired with the trophy and arms of the reverse, and was the principal theme of the Republican's coinage. The design includes the name of the legate responsible for the coinage, Marcus Servilius, who had personally served in Lycia campaigns and was perhaps present at the fall of both Xanthus and Patara. One highly unusual aspect of this issue, which consists of both aurei and denarii, is that while by no means common, the aurei are considerably more plentiful than the denarii, of which just a handful are known.
